GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO SEAL EXHIBITS TO MOTION IN LIMINE

The United States respectfully moves for permission to file sealed exhibits to its Motion in Limine to Admit Evidence of Defendant's Other Crimes of Child Molestation Pursuant to Rules 414 and 404(b). As reason therefor, the government submits that the exhibits are comprised of a sealed search warrant affidavit and three reports of investigation, by various law enforcement agencies, which detail information that is sensitive and should not be made available to the public at this time. The exhibits have been provided to counsel for the defendant.

Respectfully Submitted,

NATHANIEL R. MENDELL Acting United States Attorney
